

Your Hosts for Silent Valley, the NoMads

June 2017

LIVE OAK WRAP-UP

In keeping with this caravan's Tiki theme, the host tent handed out leis to a total of 68 rigs, including 4 guests and 2 first timers. The newcomers were Tim Reeve and Florence Yu, and Dennis Amay and Daryl Morrell.

The trade winds blew strong, but that didn't stop the big Sew-A-Thon organized by Peggy Zabel on Thursday morning. Lady volunteers (plus a few gents!) made dozens of flannel baby "Binky" blankets for donation to needy families. Everyone enjoyed this project so much, we continued to see dedicated volunteers making "just one more" all the way through Saturday!

Friday brought perfect weather as we all lined up for a yummy pancake and sausage breakfast prepared and served by Georgeann Lovett and her host of volunteers. The annual Minnie-Mickey washer-toss tournament followed. In the afternoon, Terry Tanner's well attended Tech Talk was followed by the all-camp Tiki-Bar Mixer. The Past Tents manned the blenders, serving refreshing Pina Colodas and Margueritas (virgin and otherwise) complete with cocktail umbrellas. While everyone visited, judges circulated around and selected finalists for the Hawaiian shirt contest. Prizes were to be presented to the "Best" and "Ugliest", but with no truly ugly shirt to be found, good-natured volunteers stepped up for the latter. The winners were selected by popular acclaim.

On Friday evening, we enjoyed an "Oldie-Weds Game" emceed by Peggy and Marlin Zabel. One couple from each group was selected to be contestants. The rest of us hooted and hollered as spouses got their answers right or wrong. It was a fun and busy day!

Of course, it wouldn't be Live Oak without a Craft Fair and we got to shop for both familiar items plus some new ones! Painted Turtle afghan donations were also put on display (sorry – these were not for sale). Overall, the caravan was filled with wall-to-wall activities and fun! Congrats to all organizers and participants.

WOMEN ONLY

Peggy Zabel (The Pegster)

I am so fortunate to belong to an organization that has the most giving women. This past week, our Lazy Daze Caravan club women had our annual sewing event for charity. This year, we decided to make fleece blankets for the Binky Patrol organization that provides blankets for foster children. These blankets become the child's personal property. Take a look at our women at work and the blankets we finished at our campout. Several ladies took material home so we will have even more for Binky Patrol in Riverside. Thank you Lazy Daze ladies. As usual, you came through with more than what Binky Patrol and I expected.

And more to come.

Mona Shaner sewed labels on over 40 blankets in a six hour period.

I wish I could thank everyone by name and had a picture of the great work everyone was doing but it was a very busy morning. Just know that I appreciate everyone's help and/or their donation of time and fabric.

A huge thank you to Georgeann, Mona and Sharon for all of your help. We could not have done this project without your leadership.

The super women of the Lazy Daze Caravan Club who helped make the Binky Patrol a huge success!

Mickey and Minnie Washer Toss Tournament

Mickeys Rule This Year!

Mickey / Minnie Tournament

Live Oak Caravan 2017

Washer-toss Tournament

May 19, 2017

A total of 23 teams signed up for the Mickey/Minnie Mouse Tournament, consisting of 11 Mickey and 12 Minnie Mouse teams. There were six first time Washer Toss players including an exchange student from France, Gracielle Badaire being hosted by Brian and Renie Cox and their two children Will and Kat.

Our caravaners brought out 9 sets of boards which allowed play to move along quite well without much delay. We were able run a double elimination with a best two out of three runoff for the tournament champion.

Marlin Zable and Bill Arthur were the winners of the Mickey bracket and Carol Kratzer and Linda Palmer won the Minnie bracket. Marlin and Bill proved to be to much for the girls and they won the tournament with two strait wins, redeeming the defeat that the girls gave the men last year.

Congratulations to Marlin and Bill for their win.
