Welcome to Ventura County Fairgrounds

June recap at Silent Valley

The Drifters hosted the June caravan at Silent Valley with 26 rigs in camp and perfect weather. It was so welcome after all the rain we have had recently at caravans. The Drifters want to thank everybody for helping us, a little help goes a long way.

Georgeann Lovett did another excellent job on the barbecue dinner from Dickey's on Friday evening, which was followed by a family feud type contest with questions based on "Are You Smarter Than a Fifth Grader?" The game was run by Georgeann Lovett and Peggy Zabel and was very entertaining.

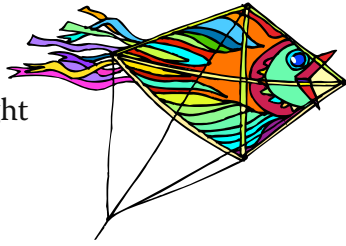

Gary Wells ran the washer toss tournament which was short on women again. We need to show more enthusiasm from the women. Washer Toss was won by Terry Tanner and Sharon Turner, who had to win two games against Marlin Zabel and Donna LaPorte to secure first place.

The week was topped off by a successful hot dog cook out on Saturday night with excellent participation.

KITE FLYING FUN

Let's go fly a kite
Up to the highest height
Let's go fly a kite
and send it soaring up through the atmosphere up where the air is clear
Oh, let's go fly a kite

There will have a kite flying event, on Friday of the Caravan. The time, probably when the prevailing winds start, the afternoon is usually when that happens. We would like many of the members to participate and have fun!!

Dickey's Barbecue Dinner June 7, 2019

Silent Valley had perfect weather for our outdoors Dickey's Barbecue Dinner. Forty-six Lazy Dazers enjoyed a dinner of pulled pork, beef brisket, baked beans, potato salad, cole slaw, barbecue sauce, pickles, onions and rolls. So many people pitched in to help setup for our dinner and after-dinner entertainment. Steve Tivy and Herb Johnson setup the sound system; servers were Patrick & Barbara Barnes, Roger and Donna LaPorte, Ron and Marja Way, Christine Nordstrom, Dave Fletcher, and Rich Lovett. And we had tables brought from many of the campers (thank you!) for serving the food and desserts. And, WOW! What desserts we had! So many people donated delicious desserts. And, then, cleanup was a breeze. So many pitched in to tear down tables; toss the trash, and in general, bring the Chapel in the Hills back to its original pristine condition. Thank you EVERYONE who helped in any way. Our club thrives because of all of you.

Lazy Daze Game Show – Are you Smarter than a 5th Grader?

This year's entertainment was a "home-grown" version of the TV show (and several books) "Are you Smarter than a 5th Grader?" Peggy Zabel was our MC and Georgeann Lovett helped. We had four teams comprised of four team members each competing for the coveted prizes.

Our teams were:

Team 1: Dave Hurley, Roger LaPorte, Vern Tutterrow, Sharon Turner

Team 2: Dave Nordstrom, Lydia Granger, John VanWonterghem, Gary Wells

Team 3: Kara Marrs, Paula VanWonterghem, Marja Way, Greg Young

Team 4: Michael Lemp, Steve Tivy, Velna Wells, Donna LaPorte

Team 1 and Team 2 battled to ring their bell first, and to give the correct answer to the tough questions. Lydia Granger shined at American History; John VanWonterghem at Science and Math with Dave Nordstrom and Gary Wells handling a variety of categories. Team 2 prevailed to compete against the winner of the competition between Team 3 and Team 4. Teams 3 and 4 competed with another set of tough questions. Everyone on those two teams pulled their weight in correctly answering questions, but Team 4 won that set. Then, Team 2 won the entire competition against Team 4, showing their overall knowledge in a variety of categories. Gift certificates were given to each of the team members.

Silent Valley Washer Toss

For those who did not attend this Silent Valley Caravan, you missed a fine outing with exceptional weather. Steve Tivy did a good job providing us with temperatures in the hi 70's and low 80's, with light breezes in the afternoon.

The Drifters did an excellent job hosting the outing even though there were only 26 rigs that participated in this caravan.

We were able to form 9 teams with 3 teams of guys, consisting of, Byron Shaner and Dave Fletcher Team 6, Roger LaPorte and Herb Johnson III Team 5, and John Van Wonerghem and Joe Fletcher Team 7.

Team 2, Marlin Zable and Donna LaPorte, cruised through the winner bracket defeating Teams 1, 3 and 7 to win the winners bracket and go into the Playoff round. Team 3, after losing to Team 2, had to defeat Team 1, Vern Tutterrow and Amy Lemp, Team 5, Roger and Herb, which they did, to advance into the playoff round.

Having to win only one game to gain the championship, Team 2 went cold and lost two games to Team 3, Terry Tanner and Sharon Turner.

Congratulation to Terry and Sharon.
